MAYOR FENTY LIKES TO MAKE DECISIONS BEHIND
CLOSED DOORS ...

... IT'S NO WONDER HE'S OUT OF TOUCH WITH OUR HARD-WORKING FAMILIES.

The Washington Post

July 8, 2010

The city's top union leadership, grouped in the Metropolitan Washington Council, AFL-CIO, hasn't met with Fenty since early 2007. The group includes 40,000 District voters.

Since taking office, Fenty has refused to sit down with community leadership ...

Firefighters, workers, business groups and the business community all say the same thing—Mayor Fenty is unreachable and unapproachable.

And has cut services and fired hundreds of working men and women.

While unemployment is at an all time high, Mayor Fenty is cutting critical services and firing hundreds of workers. He fired more than one hundred day workers and closed preschools in our poorest neighborhoods despite city council protests.

We need a mayor who will stand with workers, not against us.
